The map shows Austria in the center, shaded in light gray. Eight surrounding countries are highlighted in black and numbered 1 through 8. Each number is placed in the center of the respective country. To the right of the map, there are two columns of horizontal lines for labeling. The first column has lines for numbers 1, 2, 3, and 4. The second column has lines for numbers 5, 6, 7, and 8. Each line is preceded by its corresponding number and followed by a slash and another line for the capital city.
